

Lexis Preparatory School Counseling Program

Character Education

Respect, Responsibility, Caring, Trustworthiness, Citizenship, Fairness

Social Skills

Thinking before acting, Communication skills, Following directions , Improving self image, Accepting consequences, Problem solving, Self control, Completing assignments, Dealing with anger, Dealing with feelings, Accepting change, Attending to tasks, Respect for others, Accepting differences and Dealing with peer pressure

Classroom Instruction

Developing social/life skills, Anger management, Good decision making, Impulsiveness, Character education, Relaxation techniques and emotional awareness

Individual and Small Group Programming

Developed on an as needed basis and based on the student's needs

Community Outreach and Career Development

Developing opportunities to expose students to potential career paths and working with student council on community service projects

Academic Coaching

Consulting and providing training to teachers and staff based on student need and areas of concern

Discipline

Processing problematic behaviors in conjunction with the Head of School, while supporting accountability and opportunities for personal growth and development